

---

Personal Profile

---

Guy Robertson was born in South Africa, and moved to Kuala Lumpur in 2003. He is married and has two sons, both of whom were born in Malaysia.

From his earlier years of military training he adopted the sound ethics of discipline and teamwork to become his guiding principles in civilian life. They were the foundations for his first entrepreneurial business venture at the age of twenty, and have contributed greatly to his career successes. He is an avid sporting fan and enjoys watching sound teamwork performances in competitive sporting events.

He has more than fifteen years' experience in the SME/SMI sector, and has worked in Africa, Europe, and since 2003 he has acquired considerable experience in the Asian market.

His particular expertise is in sales, customer service, the building of organisational teams, entrepreneurship, communications and business management. His industry experiences include Retail, Publishing, Human Resources, Insurance, Supply Chain Management, and Food and Beverages. He was appointed to the board of The Concilium Group Sdn Bhd as managing director in August 2008.

He is invited to speak at public and corporate seminars on a range of topics within his portfolio of experiences, and is a regular resource speaker for Vistage Asia (the world's leading Chief Executive Organisation) in Malaysia.

He devotes time working with business owners and leaders, guiding them in improving their personal and bottom-line performances.

---

“Knowledge is latent energy - Information is its catalyst.”

---